

Australian Hegel Society

Confronting Crisis
III Australian Hegel Society Conference
December 2-3, 2021

Hosted by UNSW Sydney and Macquarie University, organized in cooperation with 'Critique—Network in Social, Political and Legal thought at UNSW Sydney'

The Conference will be held online.
To register and receive the link,
please email
theaustralianhegelsociety@gmail.com

CONFRONTING CRISIS

Thursday 02 December 2021

Welcome and opening words 9:30

Session 1: Logic and Life 10:00-13:00

- 10:00 Ana María Guzmán Olmos (Bonn): Hegel's Topology of Thought and the Genesis of the Concept
- 10:40 Carlos Schoof Alvarez (Pontificia Universidad Católica del Perú): Is the Science of Logic an exercise in immanent critique?
- 11:20 Break
- 11:40 Gene Flenady (Monash): Endless Striving or Infinite Ends? Implications of Hegel's Logical Critique of the Is/Ought Distinction
- 12:20 Andy Blunden (Melbourne): Hegel on Cognition and the One
- 13:00 Lunch

Session 2: Hegel and Critical Theory 14:40-17:50

- 14:40 John Grumley (USyd): Márkus's Critique of Habermas's Excursus to The Philosophical Discourse of Modernity
- 15:20 Tivadar Vervoort (KU Leuven): Standpoint Theory and Crisis: Two Competing Crisis Theories for Political Contestation
- 16:00 Break
- 16:30 Daniel Badenhorst (Macquarie): The Crisis has not yet Matured: Crisis in the Young Hegel
- 17:10 Louis Carré & Frédéric Monferrand (FNRS, Namur): Confronting Adorno and the ecological crisis: the critical idea of Naturgeschichte

Keynote 19:00-20.30

Rahel Jaeggi (HU Berlin): History, Normativity and Progress: Re-Thinking Hegel's Theory of History

Session 3: Critique, Discourse and Mastery 21:00-23:00

- 21:00 Giovanna Luciano (UFRGS): Hegel's idea of philosophy as critique of the present
- 21:40 Mariana Teixeira (Freie Universität): Masters, Slaves, and Us: On the Ongoing Allure of Hegel's Struggle for Recognition
- 22:20 Giulia Battistoni (Verona): Conciliating Private and Public Autonomy: From Habermas' Discursive Ethics back to Hegel's Morality and Ethical Life

Friday 03 December 2021

Keynote 9:00-10:30

Karen Ng (Vanderbilt): Species-Being and Ethical Life

Session 4: Concrete Conceptuality and Madness 11:00-12:20

- 11:00 Connie Wang (Columbia): Hegel on Madness as a Sickness of the Soul
- 11:40 Anna Cornelia Ploug (Roskilde): Hegel, de Beauvoir and the critical methodology of 'concrete conceptuality'
- 12:20 Lunch

Session 5: Critique of Political Economy and its Implications 13:30-15:30

- 13:30 Kevin Thompson (DePaul): Hegel's Hermeneutical Form of Social Critique and the Problem of Poverty
- 14:10 Bernardo Ferro (Warwick): Freedom Beyond Liberalism: Reviving Hegel's Critique of Modern Political Economy
- 14:50 Viren Murthy (Winsconsin-Madison): Hegel, Reality and the Implications of our Present Crisis
- 17:30 Break

Meeting of the Hegel Society of Australia 16:00-16:40

Session 6: Ethical Life, Justice and a Crisis of Values 16:40-18:40

- 16:40 Ayumi Takeshima (Okayama): Recognition Against the Current Crisis: Ethical Life in the Philosophy of Right.
- 17:20 Diego Bubbio (WSU): Hegel's notion of Entäußerung as active justice

18:00 Finish

Note: all times are Australian Eastern Daylight Times (GMT+11)

Info: <https://www.australianhegelsociety.com/conferences>

The Critique-network at UNSW Sydney: <https://bit.ly/3x1tRxa>